Domestic Violence Services Network (DVSNS), a community-based organization, is dedicated to creating and supporting domestic violence programs in response to the diverse needs of the central Middlesex region. For more information visit www.dvsn.org or call 978-318-3421.

DVSNS is looking for female and male volunteers to assist both on and off stage for our annual benefit production. No prior acting experience required. On-stage performance includes dramatic readings of monologues. Off-stage assistance includes directing, lighting, hospitality, set design, sales, promotion and much more.

Save the Date

A Memory, A Monologue, A Rant, and A Prayer.

This production is a collection of monologues by world-renowned authors and playwrights, edited by Eve Ensler, author of The Vagina Monologues and founder of the V-Day, the global movement to end violence against women and girls.

Performances will be held at the Harvey Wheeler Community Center in West Concord on March 26, 27 and 28, 2010
